Ad-hoc Committee

A Chara,

Further to our correspondence of some time ago regarding the possibility of unity perhaps your organisation would let us have a set of your proposals in the matter. On receipt of the required information we will arrange a meeting within a couple of weeks to enable your representatives to elaborate on the proposals.

~~A Chara,~~

At our recent Executive meeting of 16th December, it was decided to call a meeting of our negotiating panel on 6th January 1979, to put forward our proposals for continuing talks with An Comisiun. Following our meeting on the 6th Jan. I will be in touch with you again, to arrange a meeting of the negotiating panel of An Comisiun, to meet us sometime in January, or at your earliest convenience.

A Chara,

I have your letter of December 18th.'78. It would be ideal if you suggested two or three dates for a meeting after January 6th. and allowed us to choose one which would be mutually convenient. A fortnight's notice would be appreciated.

A Chara,

I wish to convey the sincere regrets of my organisation for the delay in replying to your letter of December 1978, A combination of bad weather and prior commitments has not helped us to overcome the Postal dispute, but I am pleased to be able to suggest a possible date for a meeting of An Coimisiun and An Comhdhail.

We are most anxious to let you have alternative dates for such a meeting, but i'm afraid the only time our Executive members of the panel could be available before the summer recess is Sunday 29th April 1979, at 3.p.m.

Please feel free to Telephone me at the above Number at any time which is convenient for you.

Is Mise, Le Meas,
