

12, Hillsbrook Crescent,
Perrystown,
Dublin, 12.

ADJUDICATORS MEETING
NORTH COAST HOTEL, PORTMARNOCK, CO. DUBLIN.

A Cara,

An Adjudicators meeting has in previous years taken place in conjunction with the Annual Convention, but due to pressure of business at the Convention proper, it was usually relegated to the recess between conclusion of business and the 7 p.m. Dinner.

Invariably only the surface of problems affecting the Adjudicators was scratched and discussion curtailed due to the limitation of time.

The Organising Committee have decided that the meeting be held this year on the evening preceding the Convention i.e. Saturday, 23rd October at 8 p.m. at the North Coast Hotel, Portmarnock, Co. Dublin. A special tariff of £1 for accommodation including bed and breakfast has been secured from the Hotel for Teachers or Adjudicators attending the Convention or the Adjudicators meeting and who may wish to stay the night. Light refreshments will be provided during the meeting through courtesy of the Irish Dancing Teachers Association (Dublin Area).

It is inevitable that discussion at this meeting will range over a great number of problems which affect each one of us Adjudicators and will include the problems of:-

- (a) Shoe reinforcement ✓
- (b) Variances in interpretation of figure dances as described in the Hand Books.
- (c) Responsibility of Adjudicators. / Intimidation withdrawn of props
- (d) Fees cutting down of dances to Remembrance & Side Slip.

We are most anxious that a truly representative gathering of Adjudicators should assemble on the 23rd October and we are confident you will make every effort to be present.

Please let us know as soon as possible whether or not you intend to be present.

Is Mise le Meas

A Cara,

An Adjudicators meeting has in previous years taken place in conjunction with the Annual Convention, but due to pressure of business at the Convention proper, it was usually relegated to the recess between conclusion of business and the 7 p.m. Dinner.

Invariably only the surface of problems affecting the Adjudicators was scratched and discussion curtailed due to the limitation of time.

The Organising Committee have decided that the meeting be held this year on the evening preceding the Convention i.e. Saturday, 23rd October at 8 p.m. at the North Coast Hotel, Portmarnock, Co. Dublin. A special tariff of £1 for accommodation including bed and breakfast has been secured from the Hotel for Teachers or Adjudicators attending the Convention or the Adjudicators meeting and who may wish to stay the night. Light refreshments will be provided during the meeting through courtesy of the Irish Dancing Teachers Association (Dublin Area).

It is inevitable that discussion at this meeting will range over a great number of problems which affect each one of us Adjudicators and will include the problems of:-

- (a) Shoe reinforcement ✓
- (b) Variances in interpretation of figure dances as described in the Hand Books.
- (c) Responsibility of Adjudicators. / Intimidation withdrawn of papers
- (d) Fees
① Cutting down of dances to Remembrance & Side Steps.

We are most anxious that a truly representative gathering of Adjudicators should assemble on the 23rd October and we are confident you will make every effort to be present.

Please let us know as soon as possible whether or not you intend to be present.

Is Mise le Meas

---

Ruaidhri O'Concubhair